Name your beneficiary (or beneficiaries)

A revocable beneficiary can be changed at anytime.

An irrevocable beneficiary can only be changed with written consent from that beneficiary. You will also need your beneficiary's consent to withdraw or transfer money from your account. A parent or guardian cannot provide consent on behalf of a minor who has been named as irrevocable beneficiary.

If you want to name more than three beneficiaries, attach a separate page with the names and the percentage of proceeds for each beneficiary.

If you have locked-in money in your RPP and you have a spouse on the date of your death, the law may require any death benefit be paid to your spouse, regardless of other beneficiaries you've named.

If you die while your beneficiary is still a minor, the trustee you name on this form will act on the child's behalf.

If you do not name a beneficiary and you do not have a spouse at the date of your death, proceeds will be paid to your estate.

Check here if you have attached a separate page listing your beneficiaries. Please sign and date.

The above beneficiary designations are considered revocable unless you write "irrevocable" in the chart above.

For Quebec only:

The designation of a spouse as beneficiary is deemed to be irrevocable unless specified here: Revocable

Trustee for a minor beneficiary named above (not applicable in Quebec)

Any payment to a beneficiary who is a minor will be paid in trust to the trustee named below.

In Quebec, the proceeds will be paid in trust to the minor child's tutor.
